FIRE² - TAB - Take a Break Services from SCC

The next time you are asked to organise a "Break Activity" - be it your Corporate Annual Day, Employee Outings, Channel Meets or Similar Events - just think of See Change Consulting (SCC in short).

Being the person vested with the responsibility running any one of the above shows / events, you have the following questions running in your mind:

- 1) What exactly to do? Should it be just fun or some message needs to be delivered?
- 2) Who to call?
- 3) Budgets, locations etc.?
- 4) Would it be well accepted?

Don't worry! SCC has all the answers.

We have been helping Organisations running meaningful full day / 1/2 day or late evening events (in-bound or out-bound) to keep it engaging, tickling the funny bone and yet delivering a subtle message that the Organisation wants to deliver - be it Employee Motivation, Leadership Message or whatever you choose!

All these in a budget that suits you well.

Look at some of our clients who have ran events through us!

- Intel, HP, AMD, Grundfos, Dow Corning, Acme Events, Supreme Computers, Colleges, Educational Institutions – the list goes on...

- * SCC's well-tuned team is capable of assessing your needs and excelling in meeting and delivering more than what you might expect!
- * SCC knows how to identify and study the audience's requirements, devising the concept, planning and delivering a meaningful event.
- * All of SCC's events are carefully developed to ensure your team receives a balanced mix of mental, emotional and physical activities.
- * You might represent a small company, a growing firm or a well-established one - Whatever is the case, whatever the size, SCC can create just what you need!

Make it worth remembering

It is one of the most significant annual, strategic investments you will be making. Don't blow it away by just letting the participants indulge in some aimless fun alone. Make them to talk about it for quite a while!

Believe us; we will make the event work for YOU

Come to SCC and we will show you how to convert your investment into a meaningful Event - with ROI written all over! Events have an impact on the entire Organisation and its fiber, as it will be talked about (positively or otherwise) for time to come!
